GROCERIES! GROCERIES!!

AT WHOLESALE,

103 & 105, EAST WATER STREET.

P. W. BADGLEY & CO.,

ARE RECEIVING their SPRING STOCK, purchased East, which, added to their large receipts of SUGAR AND MOLASSES,
From New Orleans, render their Stock desirable for Cash buyers to examine before making their purchases. It is our object to have, at all times, a stock that will show favorably with any similar stock in the West. We will hold ourselves ready to duplicate any Retail Dealers' purchases East, adding necessary expenses.

Mr. BADGLEY'S long experience in the Jobbing Grocery Business in New York, enables us to buy our Stock as well as most Jobbing Houses in New York—insuring to our Customers a with those who purchase in New York; in fact, BETTER—as we purchase full half our stock South and West, at far better rates than we can East.

ALL ORDERS entrusted to us will receive the same attention as if present.

OUR STOCK, in part, consists as follows:—
150 Hhds. various grades, SUGARS,
280 Bbls MOLASSES,
415 half chests Green and Black TEAS,

F. AHN'S
New, Practical and easy Method of
LEARNING THE GERMAN LANGUAGE.
WITH A PRONOUNCIATION
arranged according to J. C. Oehtschlaeger's recently publ'd
Pronouncing German Dictionary.
FIRST & SECOND COURSE.—8vo., 180 pages, bound in Muslin, 37½ cents each.

This little work which met a favorable reception in Europe is just republished in this country. It is suited to every capacity, and cannot fail to facilitate the labors of the student, who is desirous of learning to read and speak the German language in the shortest time possible. German literature occupies a high position. Germans are pouring into this State by thousands every year; their language, therefore, is becoming every day of more importance to the people of Wisconsin. We therefore heartily recommend these elementary works to all those who desire to study this fine language. [ap23] C. OTT, Agent.

REED'S BAKING POWDER.

FOR EASILY making Bread, Biscuit, Fried, Griddle and Johnny cakes, &c., &c. Infinitely better, sweeter, whiter, lighter, healthier, and much quicker than can be made by Durkee's or any other Baking Powder.

A large number of housekeepers in Milwaukee and elsewhere, who have tried this preparation, pronounce it superior to any ever before used.

Use it according to the directions, and the Bread or Biscuit must rise, even with poor flour.

Those desiring further information in regard to the merits of the article, by calling upon the manufacturer will be shown certificates from many of the most respectable residents of Milwaukee.

Prepared only by Herbert Reed, Family Grocer,
No. 235 East Water St., Milwaukee.

☞ CAUTION.—The written signature of HERBERT REED, must always be found upon a red stamp on the back of every package of the genuine article. Every paper bearing such stamp is warranted better, purer and cheaper than any other similar preparation, and fully equal to the recommendations. mar11tf

1853. WINTER TRADE. 1853.

JOHN D. GARDINER,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS!
No. 135 East Water Street, Milwaukee.

Sound the loud timbrel o'er Prairie and River!
Proclaim the glad tidings—Goods cheaper than ever!

IN VIEW of the luxuriant crops in all the great staples of our young and glorious State, and the good prices they at present command, and the consequent increased ability of our farmers to buy, as well as the increased activity of business generally, among all classes, the subscriber has been induced to make extra preparations for a large and extensive trade. In anticipation of this increased demand for Dry Goods, he has spent a portion of the past summer and fall, east, where he has been engaged in buying one of the largest and most varied stock of Dry Goods that he has ever yet brought into Wisconsin. In buying these Goods, he has taken the utmost pains in selecting the best and most fashionable styles and qualities.

His purchases have been made by the Bale, Case and Package direct of the Manufacturers or their Agents, the Importers and at Auction. His facilities for buying, fully warrant him in saying that they are equalled but by few, and excelled by no firm in the trade. The old maxim, that "Goods well bought are half sold," has governed him in his purchases. And knowing that he buys as low, he is determined not to be undersold in a fair and legitimate way. Come then, "all you who are weary and heavy laden" with the yellow coin, or overburthened with good promises to pay, and we will give you rest, and impart comfort to those who are hungry and naked, by selling goods cheaper than ever.

☞ This fact we desire to keep prominently and permanently before the People—THAT WE DO NOT PERMIT OURSELVES UNDER ANY REASONABLE CIRCUMSTANCES TO BE UNDERSOLD. Remember it.

Our Stock consists in part of the following articles:

Self-Interest; or, Returning Good for Evil.

BY J. M. BETTS.

Elder Barnes prided himself, not a little, on what he called "looking out for Number One;" but which consisted, in reality, in cheating all who had the misfortune to deal with him.

He well understood the policy of keeping up an appearance of great charity and benevolence; and so well had he succeeded, that none presumed to call in question the elder's generosity, while an instance of his actually giving a trifle to a charitable object, was not within the memory of the "oldest inhabitant."

The elder was chairman of all the committees, president of the missionary society, and a prominent speaker on all occasions, whenever he could obtain hearers; but if a poor man lost his cow, or a starving family needed bread, the elder was the last one to apply to. He was not only close and mean, but most thoroughly selfish, even when a little kindness done to another would have cost him nothing.

He often boasted that he was never overreached in a bargain; but the small fortune he had amassed in a comparatively short time, gave evidence that all who had traded with him could not say as much.

It was near the close of a hot day in August, when not a breath of air was stirring, and the atmosphere seemed too stifling for existence, much less for active exertion, yet nearly every field had in it more or less men with teams, raking and loading hay fit for the barn with all possible dispatch, for a heavy thunder-storm was coming up, and the west was already black with clouds, from which ever and anon the lightning flashed, while thunder growled in the distance.

Mr. Rawson, a near neighbor to Elder Barnes, had just sent his last load from the field, and pausing a moment to wipe the perspiration from his forehead, he was accosted by a man dressed as a wagoner, and carrying a long whip in his hand.

"Will you have the kindness to let me drive my team on your barn floor, until the storm is over?" said he. "I am heavily loaded with grain, and have five miles yet to go, before reaching home!"

"I should be glad to oblige you," answered Mr. Rawson; "but my barn is small, and I have already one unloaded cart on the floor, and another to make room for."

"Where can I obtain shelter, then," inquired the man, anxiously. "Can you direct me to any place near?"

"I am sorry, but I am afraid that every barn around here is occupied," was the answer.—"Yet stay," he continued, as a thought seemed to strike him: "there is the next house above here—Elder Barnes—he got his hay all in yesterday, and could accommodate you as well as not."

"Thank you!" was the hasty rejoinder, and springing over the wall, the man left his team, and hastened back, as directed.

"Is Elder Barnes at home?" he inquired of a boy swinging on the gate.

"That is my name," answered the person enquired for, stepping from a building near.—"What do you wish for?"

The request was repeated, when the elder's countenance fell.

"I have my floors partly occupied," he said, at length, in a hesitating tone; "besides, I sho'd rather not have a heavy load driven in; it would strain the timbers too much."

"But there is a storm coming up," urged the applicant, "and my grain will be spoilt. I have driven as fast as possible, and am still some distance from home. I only ask for shelter thro' the rain, and am willing to pay for the trouble."

"There are other farmers who own large barns around here," suggested the elder.

"I have inquired at nearly every house for the last two miles," answered the man, "and every barn, large enough for my purpose, was occupied."

"I don't think there will be much rain, nothing more than a high wind," said the elder, beginning to step towards the house.

"Very well, sir, I wish you good day," answered the teamster, his temper not a little ruffled. "All I have to say is, that I hope you will get through the world without knowing what it is to stand in need of a kindness."

"That is my concern," muttered the elder; and turning around, he walked rapidly away.

"Nothing more than I might have expected!" said Mr. Rawson, to himself, as he saw the man come slowly back, and stand irresolute, as if utterly at a loss what to do; and quickly joining him, the result was soon made known.

"It is too bad," continued the teamster. "I had engaged to have this grain threshed, ground and delivered, this week;" and he gazed despairingly upon the towering load, drawn by six stout horses, covered with sweat and foam, and then at the large clouds of dust that now filled the street.

"I'll tell you the best thing to be done," proposed Mr. Rawson. "Drive your team round to the other side of my barn, that will afford some shelter, and I can accommodate your horses in the shed."

This advice was accordingly acted upon, and carried into execution just in time to escape a drenching rain, that continued until after dark, when, refusing the invitation of Mr. Rawson to spend the night, the teamster continued his journey, his grain but little injured, the buildings having broke the force of the storm.

Summer passed on and Autumn arrived, and with it an appointment of the annual Conference meeting, at which Elder Barnes rarely failed of being present. He attended the meeting, and was on his way home, accompanied by his wife, when, in descending a steep hill, the harness broke, throwing the carriage violently forward. The horses, not fancying the movements at their heels, took flight, overturning the carriage down a steep embankment, throwing out the occupants, who fortunately escaped with nothing more serious than a few bruises.

The horses continued their flight, until they were perceived by a farmer at work near the road, who instantly dispatched two of his 'hands' to capture the runaways, while a horse was quickly harnessed to a light wagon, and sent back to the scene of disaster.

By the time Mrs. Barnes had fairly recovered her senses, and the elder from his astonishment, they were both seated before a blazing fire, and everything done for their comfort and relief that ingenuity could devise.

After staying a couple of hours and refreshing themselves with broiled steaks and hot coffee, prepared by the lady of the house, assisted by two accomplished daughters, Mrs. Barnes began to think it time they were on their way home.

The elder, meanwhile, had been viewing the premises, accompanied by the polite and gentlemanly proprietor, and as money possessed great value in his eyes, it is not surprising that the ample farm-house, finished in modern style, the immense double barns, and numerous outbuildings, together with a large stock of fat cattle, had completely taken up the elder's attention, and caused him to feel no little respect for the fortunate owner.

Having made known their desire of reaching home before dark, they were soon informed that all was ready; and, on reaching the gate the elder and his wife were agreeably surprised to see that their own carriage, which they had supposed entirely demolished, had been repaired, and cleansed from mud, while attached to it were the elder's two mettlesome steeds, now recovered from their fright, and fresh from a plentiful supply of oats, who were champing their bits, impatient to be gone.

"This is kind, sir; very kind, indeed, I must say," spoke the elder, at length, a little moved by the hospitality he had experienced. "I am greatly obliged to you, and whatever you ask for your trouble, I shall be happy to pay."

"I don't measure my duty to a fellow-creature in distress, on the scale with dollars and cents," answered the farmer, proudly drawing up his figure, and throwing back the masses of dark hair, from his sun-burnt face.

"Well, at any rate, come and see us, if you

Will those friendly to our paper speak a good word in season for us, for session subscribers?

Speaker of the Assembly.

The Hunkers have their candidates—Messrs. NOGGLE, of Rock, KNOWLTON, of Lafayette, and FRED. HORN—all of them personally opposed to a Prohibitory Liquor Law, and either of them, if chosen, would, of necessity, so constitute the Committees as to prejudice the interests of the Temperance cause.

But the Maine Law has a strong majority in the Assembly. They owe it, therefore, to themselves, to choose a Speaker, irrespective of party, who will carry out their wishes in this respect.

We suggest, in this connection, the name of DR. O. F. BARTLETT, of East Troy, who was a member last year, and is familiar with parliamentary rules, as a suitable candidate for that post. He is able, candid, gentlemanly, and would make an excellent Speaker.

The Home Circle.

By this noon's mail we received the first number of this new paper. It is very neatly printed and promises to be of great service to the cause of Temperance. A portion of the paper is devoted to Horticulture and to matters which interest the ladies. The editor gives the following notice of Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Fowler:

"Our Temperance friends will be glad to hear that Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Fowler arrived home in safety. Mrs. Nichols, we are sorry to learn, has retired from the editorial chair. She intends to devote her whole attention to the good work in which she is engaged.

"We hope both these ladies will find time to occasionally gratify their numerous and warm personal friends in this State by communications through the columns of the Home Circle. They will not soon forget the beauteous scenery, the outstretching prairies, the silvery lakes, the park-like scenery of our glorious oak openings, and we trust they will willingly gladden the hearts of those who welcomed them so cordially to our shores, in the performance of their benevolent mission."

This paper should be largely circulated.—Price only one dollar a year.

THE Water Cure and the American Phrenological Journals, for January, are received.—They are capital numbers, beautifully printed, on the finest paper, and chock full of choice reading matter. The Phrenological Journal has a phrenological character and biographical sketch of Grace Greenwood—the former quite flattering to Grace. These Journals have deservedly won a wide popularity.

EDMUND QUINCY says that Miss Bremer's new Book on this Country, if the extracts he has seen have been faithfully made, "is the most successful Work of Fiction, she ever attempted." We think so too, and believe that it will not add anything to her reputation as a historical writer.

RIGHT SENTIMENT IN THE RIGHT QUARTER.—The New-York Musical World & Times rebukes right manfully the foolish and wicked prejudice which excludes colored persons from the cars and omnibusses in New-York and elsewhere. It thinks it worse, if possible, than Slavery.

A LONG and violent controversy, between Frederick Douglass and the leaders of the old American Anti-Slavery Society, has apparently terminated by leaving both parties further apart and more hostile to each other than ever. The usual result of controversy.

THIRTY TONS OF SILVER.—The Louisville Courier says the great Express Company, Adams & Co., have made a contract with a New Orleans packet for the transportation of thirty tons of specie—$1,000,000—from New Orleans to that city.

IT seems, according to Robert Emmett's speech at the Mitchell banquet, that part of the money contributed in 1848 for Ireland, was expended in effecting the liberation of John Mitchell and Thomas Francis Meagher.

FIRE.—On Monday week a dwelling house, owned and occupied by a German, some three miles from Manitowoc village, was entirely consumed by fire, with all its contents. The fire originated from the chimney.

THE Madison Argus says that Gerrit Smith's speech excited no sensation in Congress. It is the first exchange which has this piece of news.

THE Detroit Daily Times has again been galvanized into existence. This, we believe, makes the third time it has started on the journey of life.

A NEW MARBLE QUARRY, of great value, has been discovered in the town of Kent, Ct., within 40 rods of the Housatonac Railroad.

THE price of admission to the New York Crystal Palace, is now reduced to twenty-five cents for every evening after 5 o'clock.

BELLOIS HOTEL, with seven other buildings at Bay St. Louis, near New Orleans, were recently consumed by fire. Loss, $12.000.

THE SECOND ADVENT;
Or, The Developments of the Times.

BY H. H. VAN AMRINGE.

No. IV.—THE RESURRECTION.

The doctrine of the Second Advent of our Lord is further proved by what Paul teaches concerning the resurrection of the dead.

Before I proceed to consider what he says on this subject, I must first explain the meaning of a word used in the English version of the Bible. At the time of the English translation of the Scriptures, the word "prevent" meant "to go before," or "to precede," or "have priority." And this is properly its etymological sense. Thus, in Psalm cxix., 147, 148, the Psalmist says—"I prevented [that is, preceded or arose before] the dawning of the morning, and cried;"—"Mine eyes prevent [awake, or, figuratively, go before] the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word."

In the time of Paul, it appears that certain of the Thessalonians [1st Thess., 4th chapter] were apprehensive that their Christian brethren who were asleep—that is, who had departed this life before the Second Advent—might suffer a loss from the fact of their not being alive to meet the Lord. The advent of Christ for final judgment seems always to have been thought nearer than it was, or is. What is necessary for our present duty, we may know.—But in regard to the season or manner of the fulfillment of prophecies, to be accomplished in the future, we may often be left in much obscurity. I do not see that any evil can happen from this uncertainty of the time of the Second Advent of the Great Judge; for we must be always watchful, that we may be prepared whether he comes in the second or the third watch. And this is manifest; for we are to be judged according to the deeds done in the body. Therefore, to the wise, no injury is done by a want of certainty in regard to the time.

Paul writes to console the Thessalonians. I will somewhat paraphrase what he says:

I would not have you, brethren, to be ignorant concerning them who are asleep [or deceased], that ye sorrow not, even as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also who sleep in Jesus, or who have departed in the faith, will God bring with Jesus. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, and remain UNTO THE COMING of the Lord, shall not prevent [or have any priority or advantage over] them who are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall first rise; THEN such Christians as are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall be caught up together with the resurrected dead in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so we shall ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words. But of the times and the seasons, you have no need, brethren, that I write unto you. For you, yourselves, know perfectly that the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; as our Lord himself declared that the Son of Man cometh at an hour when ye think not. Therefore be ye always ready.

We are not to suppose that Paul imagined the day near at hand, because he has used the phrase—"we which are alive and remain." He spoke simply of himself and others in Christ, as representing the members of the Christian family, who should be alive on earth at the coming of Christ. That he did not think the time near is manifest by his words in 2d Thessalonians, 2d chapter. He told them not to be soon shaken in mind nor troubled, as if the day of Christ were at hand. For that day was not to come until after an apostacy.

Neither must we imagine that, at death, and until the resurrection at the Second Advent, the souls of the deceased lie in a dormant state. This is disproved by multitudes of texts in the Scriptures. I will give only one instance.—Moses and Elias appeared with Christ at his transfiguration, and this was before even the death of our Lord. I might mention other proofs, but it is unnecessary.

Why, then, it may be asked, is there any need for a resurrection? Suppose I could not answer the question: still the doctrine of the resurrection is true; for it is expressly taught in the Bible. But I have, to my mind, a sufficient answer to the question.

After death there is an increase of glory in the condition of the faithful. God has chosen to make the season of the advent of Christ for judgment, the time for such a bodily increase in the glory of the departed faithful, that even the present glory of Moses and Elias, of Paul, John, James, and other saints who sleep in Jesus, is small compared with the glory which shall be revealed in them at the resurrection and final judgment, when Christ shall come to be glorified in his saints.

If it be asked, with what body shall the dead come? I can answer only in the language of the Apostle, in I. Cor., xv. There is a celestial body, as well as a terrestial. There are mysteries of the resurrection which I can no more solve than I can many of the mysteries of my present incarnation. The fact, I believe; the manner, I leave in the hands of Him who knoweth and doeth all things well.

Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God. We shall not all die, but we shall all be changed. For, at the advent of Christ, the dead, or the saints, who shall "sleep in Jesus," shall be raised incorruptible; and the Christian who shall be alive, and remain to the day of the coming of the Lord, shall not die, but be changed, to the same glory. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. Both the just and the unjust shall be raised, "for we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

The Connecticut river is closed by ice, and the boats have suspended there trips to Hartford for the season. Freight usually sent by that route is now shipped by the New Haven boats.

There are 233,000 barrels of ale manufactured in Albany, yearly. This requires the consumption of 600,000 pounds of hops, worth 35 cents a pound. The number of persons employed is about 700.

GENERAL TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Great Fire in New-York.

A fire originated in Breadwell & Son's cracker bakery, 244 Front St., New-York, on Monday, the 26th inst., and destroyed nine stores with their contents, and extending to the shipping, consumed the Great Republic, laden with flour and cotton for Liverpool, the Pacific ship Jos. Walker, the clipper White Squal, and others. The telegraph reports the loss at two millions of dollars.

Button Factory Burnt.

The Button Factory of Pomeroy & Co., at New Haven, Ct., was burnt yesterday morning. Loss $50,000.

California News.

The Northern Light brings $2,000,000 of gold from California, and news of great political excitement, the Democrats there excommunicating each other and fighting as the Hards and Softs of New-York.

Heavy rains and a large yield of gold.

Riots at Erie, Man Killed, &c.

Yesterday as the cars were about starting west from Harbor Creek, the people of the neighborhood began to tear up the rails from the Buffalo Road, in front of the train. Mr. Coffin, the conductor, proceeded ahead of the engine a few rods as a looker on. Some of the mob discovering him, cried out, "a spy!"—There was then a general shout "kill him," "cut him down," and he was then attacked by the mob with shovels and pick-axes and whatever missiles were within reach. He then told them to keep off and let him alone, but his appeals were without effect, and being in danger of losing his life, he drew his revolver and shot one man dead and wounded another. His life being in danger, he jumped on an engine and proceeded to Buffalo.

On Monday night the Erie folks held a pow-wow and talked threateningly. Gen. Kirkpatrick of Harbor Creek, was arrested, and gave bail for his appearance.

The Sheriff of Philadelphia, on Monday, served the injunction for the Western Road vs. the City of Erie, granted at Philadelphia last week.

The Sheriff has taken possession of the Road, to prevent the tearing up or re-laying of the track, till the question is legally decided.

The Talk at Washington.

It is rumored that a Cabinet meeting has been held, and that the President and all his Cabinet, save Campbell of Pa., are indignant at the conduct of the Erie mob.

Jefferson Davis, Secretary of War, advised sending a regiment of U. S. troops, forthwith to Erie, to restore order and enforce the mandates of the U. S. Court, and protect the Great Western Mail from the obstructions and delays to which it was subjected.

It is also reported that much excitement and indignation exists among the members of Congress against the Erieans, and that summary measures are contemplated to bring the lawless rowdies to respect law and order.

Let Congress repeal the duty on Iron, and the Pennsylvanians might come to their senses.

Riot and Murder.

Patrick and Jos. Cush were mortally stabbed and others seriously injured, in a riot between two parties of Irishmen, at Williamsburgh, N. Y., yesterday.

Murder and Suicide.

Prentice Harris, Sup't of Poor Farm, at Binghampton, murdered his wife on Sunday night, by nearly cutting her head from her body, and then cutting his own throat with a razor, dying instantly. The children were unharmed.—Harris was 30 years old and in good circumstances. He had previously shown symptoms of insanity.

Murderous Riot in Cincinnati.

On Sunday night, a hundred demons, armed with pistols, swords, clubs, ropes and torches, marched for Bishop Purcell's house, for the purpose of hanging Bedini, the Papal Nuncio, and burning the Cathedral. They were incensed at Bedini's remarks from the pulpit. The police met them, dispersed and captured some 50 or 60 of them. Monday they were held to bail for reäppearance on Friday. 14 were committed, and one died of his wounds. Henry Carroll, one of the watchmen, was shot through the thigh.

The rioters have proved themselves unworthy of freedom, for, however offensive Bedini's remarks, he had a perfect right to free speech. And the men who would assault him for so doing, strike a blow at our free institutions.

Congress---Pacific Railroad.

SENATE.—Yesterday, Senator Seward introduced a bill to construct a railroad to the Pacific, north of the 40th parallel; the land for the road-bed to be ceded to the company; the road to be built as any State legislature may authorize; the Secretary of War to issue proposals, and select the one most advantageous; the government to advance funds, either in money or checks, and the company to deposit $5,000,000, either in money or public stocks, for the faithful performance of the contract; the road to be completed in five years from the time of commencement; the company to enjoy for their own use for 50 years, the profits and emoluments of the road, but the United States mail, troops, and munitions of war to be transported at rates to be determined by the government and Congress.

Mr. Badger introduced an amendment to the river and harbor act of last year, referring to the clause appropriating $50,000 for constructing a breakwater at Albemarle Sound.

HOUSE.—The death of Hon. Mr. Campbell, of Tenn., was announced, and eulogies pronounced by Mr. Jones, of Tenn., and others

CHAS. H. LARRABEE, Circuit Judge.
Port Washington, Dec. 24, 1853.

A reporter of the Cincinnati markets states that "hogs are firm." That is stating the fact a little too mildly—the firmness of the porcine animal amounts to the most cursed obstinacy.

New Albany, Ind., is a fast city. Sixteen hundred and forty buildings have been erected there within the past year.

Erie---Bigler and Beer.

A correspondent of the New-York Tribune, who passed through Erie during the Railroad war, thus touches the pencil to Bigler, beer and Erie:

"The friends of Erie gingerbread will be glad to learn that a new bake-pan has been ordered, representing the illustrious Governor of Pennsylvania, so that all gingerbread will be hereafter baked in his image—a tender and beautiful testimony of respect to that great and good man, who declares that his sympathies are with a people who are nobly impatient of justice and common rights, and that he will abet proceedings entirely illegal, so far as the law will permit him. A new device for the Erie arms is in preparation. It is described as a Peanut rampant on a ground of apple-pie: Pop-corn d'or and candy argent. There will be a bar sinister, of a bottle of beer fizzing. Motto: Aut Erie; aut the Deluge; which is interpreted by the Rev. Presbyterian clergyman—who spiritually consoled Erie militant, on the eventful day—to mean, 'All is not lost while Erie survives!'"

"Strike for your apples and your beer,
Strike for pop-corn and candy dear,
Peanuts and pumpkin pies!"

Prentice on Erie.

PRENTICE, of the Louisville Journal, hits the Erie loafers the following merited dig in the ribs:

"The State should have protected by force the property of the company, and compelled submission to the law, even if it had been necessary to charge upon the mob as upon a gang of invading Indians. The majesty of the law now demands that some hundreds of the Erie ruffians shall be sent to the Penitentiary, and we hope that it will be done. It would be well to have a big Penitentiary erected especially for their accommodation. And we could wish that there might be two or three forges in it, so that the rascals, with shaved heads and tow breeches, under the crack of whips of the overseers, might be compelled to make iron rails to supply the place of those they have destroyed.

"We trust that the Railroad route will now be so changed as to avoid Erie altogether. The place was always too contemptible to stop at, and it is also too contemptible to go through."

CINCINNATI JUDGES.—The Pittsburgh Saturday Visitor says that a Judge of one of the Courts of Cincinnati, was a few days since arrested at his residence near the city, charged with being an accomplice with others in extensive foggeries of land titles. He was found concealed under a bed, in his night clothes, after it had been denied that he was at home. He was put in a police station house for examination.

That is very probable, Mrs. Swisshelm, as the villainy of our Cincinnati Judges is becoming so proverbial that when we, in Northern Ohio, wish to abuse anybody the worst we know how, we say he is as mean as a Cincinnati Judge. But until Judge Grier is hung, I do not think any body in Pennsylvania should comment upon the character of Judges in Ohio.—Cleveland Commercial.

When will the two Ends Meet?—Of the Rock River Valley Union Railroad some 15 miles are said to be completed from Fond du Lac to Waupun and that cars have run, or are running upon it, and also from Chicago on the Illinois portion 25 miles are finished, and that cars are now running regularly that distance to Elk Grove. The grading from that place to Janesville is to be vigorously prosecuted this winter so as to be in readiness for the rails in the spring.

A large amount of the grading from Waupun to the village of Juneau was done the first of Sept. last, and we have had hope that it would be finished to this place ready for the rails by next spring. There is a report that the road has changed hands, and the distance mentioned is to be finished by next fall in readiness for the running of the cars, but for the truth of this we are unable to vouch.—Watertown Chron.

ADVERTISING.—In one of the proverbs of Solomon we find the most comprehensive and satisfactory exposition of the Philosophy of advertising, that ever was or could be written, viz:

"There is that scattereth and yet increaseth, and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.'

And the words of Paul to the Corinthians aptly express the same idea:

'He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.'

PRACTICALITIES.—The New-York Dutchman comments thus:

A soiled shirt collar has ruined many a clever fellow; and a careless dropping of saliva upon his bosom cut off the brightest prospects. A friend of ours recently obtained an angel, with an income of $10,000 a year, simply by the aid of a two dollar frill; and another is about to lead to the altar a $50,000 piece of delaine, by studiously sporting four and six penny wristbands. Happiness, clean linen and spermaceiti have close connection.

New Varieties of Spring Wheat.—We learn that Mr. E. R. Adams, of Ixonia, has purchased a few bushels of a new variety of spring wheat called "Eldorado," which he intends to give a fair trial the ensuing season. He obtained it in the vicinity of Green Bay, and paid a dollar a bushel for it. It is said to be entirely free from smut; and can be grown on upland and low, with equal profit. The straw has strength equal to the weight of its head, and consequently is not liable to crinkle down as do other varieties.—Watertown Chron.

GREAT ADVANCE IN SHEEP.—The Galt (Canada West) Reporter says, "The extraordinary and continued rise in the price of sheep in this vicinity is wonderful. As an instance, we have just learned that a dealer from Dumfries purchased last week from an eminent breeder in Wilmot, 16 sheep at $10 a piece.—Whilst driving them home, he sold ten of these sheep at $30 each, clearing at once $140 by the speculation, over and above the six sheep he took home!"

A careless compositor down east in setting up Shakspeare's language—

"There's a divinity that shapes our ends," &c.,

unintentionally made the quotation read as follows:

"There's a dimity that shapes our ends, Rough hew them as we will."

MRS. GAINES.—Mrs. Gaines contradicts the statement of the Delaware Gazette, in relation to the discovery of evidence by which she had induced those who held the large estate in New Orleans, to which she had laid claim, to compromise with her on liberal terms. She says there is not a word of truth in it.

BAD LUCK.—We had much to encumber us this week. Our paper was delayed—the Editor gone—Wood out, and now as we go to press, we cannot have the assistance of the Foreman on account of sickness, one of his children has just passed to the Unknown world.—Marquette Mercury.

From the way in which men sometimes talk you would suppose that dollars and cents are the only respectable things in the universe; that successful speculation is the only true heroism and that the hope of making twenty per cent profit is enough to bestow dignity upon meanness itself.—Eliot.

FRED. DOUGLASS lectured before the Nashua Lyceum last week to a densely crowded audience. In his action and habits of speaking he more closely resembles Gen. Pierce than any person we know of. He speaks in this city on the 24th of January.—Manchester (N. H.) Dem.

New Publications.

WESTERN CHARACTERS, or Types of Border Life in the Western States; by J. L. McConnell, with Illustrations.

The author gives a life like picture of the Indians, and their mode of conversation. He describes the hardships, and the joys of the Pioneer, and gives a charming history of a bride in the far West—how cheerfully she took the three-legged stool, and sat thereon, while milking the cow. He writes of the wild vicissitudes of the ranger, and describes the varieties of Western game. The book is interspersed with pleasant stories.

MINNESOTA AND ITS RESOURSES; by J. W. Bond—to which are appended camp fire sketches, which will interest all who intend to visit that charming region, and also those who dont.

The author says:—"Pleasure-seekers will find Minnesota a joyous Eden during the summer months, and from present indications many of them will turn their steps hitherward. The etiquette, expensive dresses, and formality of 'Eastern and Southern watering places,' &c., can here be thrown aside, and men and women both look and act just as God intended they should, without hindrance from anybody."

A STRAY YANKEE IN TEXAS; by Philip Paxton.

This is a regular, humorous, Yankee book, abounding in drollery.

All for sale by Arnold & Wilson.

Is it Strange?

A Mr. Fletcher has written a book in defense of Slavery, which nobody will buy. The Natchez Mirror can't account for this disposition of the public, when Uncle Tom is selling readily right there.

Henry Ward Beecher, in reviewing the work, says:—

"But the problem stands yet unsolved, how did there ever come to be a man who could conceive and achieve such a work as this? Hercules cleaned the Augean stables; but he built no pyramid of their contents; he never mourned that it brought him neither praise nor profit! That was reserved for Mr. Fletcher. When a flock of geese can sail not only up the current of the Mississippi from its mouth to its source, but draw its whole current along up after them; when enterprising eels can wriggle right up the sheet of Niagara Falls, then may an author expect to navigate a treatise justifying human bondage, up the current of American common sense. As for ourselves, we had as soon make our bread out of the dust in Pharaoh's coffin, and carve our steaks out of the thigh of some old mummy that was once his chief slave-driver, as to attempt to draw nutriment from this modern catacomb of dead abominations. But it will not always be without value. By and by, it will be a rare grab for antiquarians. In 1953, men will dispute and tussel at auction for a copy of this book, like jackals over a broken-down camel in the desert of Arabia. But the publishers need not wait till then. If they are ingenious and thrifty, they may sell it to those curiosity lovers, who hunt up grotesque statues for their grounds, who carve bears and foxes with lines of ugliness transcending nature, and feel themselves rich if they can import an exhumed Momus, or ridiculous Bacchus, or some nondescript cross between an ape and a mythologic satyr. Let this book be set in the garden on the pedestal, and neither ape, monkey, Momus, Bacchus, or Pan, can for a moment be compared with it. Nor need one fear that exposure to our inclement skies will damage its value.—All the rains of a deluge will fail to make any impression upon a book so dry as this."

THE London Alliance talk of sending a deputation to the [redacted]laveholders of this country! Chris buying and selling their brethren like sheep and grain! Heavenly practice!

Holloway's Pills, a Certain and Effectual Remedy for Indigestion and Disordered Liver.—Mr. Bostock, Druggist, of Ashton-under-Lyne, states that a person with whom he is well acquainted, has received a most astonishing cure by the use of Holloway's Pills. For months he was afflicted with severe pains in the stomach, chest and liver, which entirely prevented him following his business. He availed himself of the advice of most of the medical men in the neighborhood, without deriving any benefit from their treatment. He then determined on giving Holloway's Pills a trial, and this medicine had the effect of affording immediate relief, and finally restoring him to perfect health. dec28d1w

HORACE GREELEY.—It is not probable that all who wish to hear Mr. GREELEY to-night can be accommodated in Young's Hall, great as is its capacity. We suggest that if it is possible, he be retained to lecture again to-morrow evening.

CONGRESS proposes to appropriate $70,000 to improve the mouth of the Mississippi. Messrs. MINER & FARIES, Dentists, of this city, will take the job and give bonds that it shall be promptly and satisfactorily done.

CORNER STORE.—Messrs. Ludington & Griswold, offer the best inducements, through our Advertising columns, to the purchasers of Dry Goods and Groceries. They are old friends of the public.

AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY.—The Messengers of this Company now leave our city for Chicago, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, by way of Janesville—for Sheboygan and Fond du Lac, every Thursday morning—and for Racine, Kenosha and Waukegan, every Tuesday morning. The office is on Huron st., opposite the U. S. Hotel.—Sentinel.

☞ The Board of Supervisors of Milwaukee County is now in session at the Court House—passed a resolution, yesterday, to memorialize the Legislature for authority to issue County Bonds to an amount not exceeding $100,000, to build a new Court House and County Buildings.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon, the Board were to elect three Superintendents of the Poor for the current year.

YOUNG MEN'S ASSOCIATION.—Over fifty new members have recently been added to this Association.

☞ Ald. KANE, of the 4th Ward, who was quite severely hurt on Monday last, by the falling of a portion of the walls of the Milwaukee Academy—recently burnt—is fast recovering.

CONTRIBUTION.—The First Presbyterian Church have contributed $20 toward the Dana Monument Fund.

CONSECRATION OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.—Yesterday a large audience was in attendance at the consecration of St. John's Church, in the Fifth Ward. The services were performed by Bishop Kemper, assisted by the Rev. Messrs. Keene, Ingraham and Arnett, of this City; Nichols, of Racine; Unonius, of Chicago; Stout, of Waukesha, and Peake, of Nashotah. This beautiful Church is paid for, the balance of the debt having been cancelled by the liberality of Lyndsay Ward, Esq.

The Pastor, Mr. Keene, has been indefatigable in his efforts to build up this Church and society, and has the satisfaction of seeing his labors not in vain.

A WORD IN SEASON.—"Aunt Martha," suggests, through the columns of the Manitowoc Herald, that if the gentlemen of that village intend making New Year's calls, it might be advantageous to all parties concerned for them to go in pairs instead of regiments.

"Aunt Martha" is, no doubt, a philosopher, and her advice will apply equally well in this latitude. When the gentlemen go in regiments the work is "done up" too quick—the pleasure entirely too short, and the ladies are left to their own reflections the remainder of the day—a bad condition, indeed. We trust that "Aunt Martha's" suggestion will sink deep into the ears of the young men of this community.

Police Court.

The case of the city of Milwaukee vs. August Reinhardt, for violating the wood ordinance was commenced this morning. At 10½ o'clock a jury was empannelled, and the case opened. At noon Mr. J. L. Doran, counsel for the defense, was still edifying the Court, Jury and spectators with his remarks, which were particularly emphatic. He paid the Common Council a left-handed compliment for passing such an ordinance, and said it had rendered itself notorious from Wisconsin to Maine and Florida, by its blunders, &c., &c.

It is doubtful if the Common Council survives this attack upon its administration, and it is already rumored about the streets that it will unanimously resolve to dissolve at its next meeting, and recommend the immediate election of more competent men.

SUICIDE.—Benjamin Buckingham, of Northville, (New Milford,) was found dead in a cave in the mountains near that place, last week.—The deceased was among the first of the California adventurers, and returned with some $9,000, which he lost on a second visit.

"ALBANY PENITENTIARY.—The earnings of this institution during the past year have exceeded its entire expenses some three thousand dollars."

THE Howard Temperance Society, of New-York, were addressed last Tuesday week, by Drs. Lydia F. Fowler and J. E. Snodgrass.

THERE was a severe gale and snow storm at Boston Monday.

A model return upon a writ was recently made by a deputy sheriff in Morgan County, Indiana. It was "served the within but was hit with brick-bats by the woman so that I couldn't serve it."

A hard-working and feeble mother in this city recently insulted her daughter—a girl of seventeen summers—by asking the Miss to help her in the kitchen. Outrageous!

"Setting the World on fire," is now rendered, Applying the incendiary torch to the mundane sphere."

POPULATION OF UTAH TERRITORY.—The minutes of the Mormon General Conference, held in Great Salt Lake City, on the 6th of October last, give the following as the entire population of Utah Territory:

Seventies	1,572
High Priests	560
Elders	689
Saints	8,639
Children	5,307
Total	16,767

The population in 1850, according to the U. S. census, was 11,355, which shows an increase of 5,412.

Besides the above classification, there are nine apostles, all located in Great Salt Lake City, 55 bishops, 254 priests, 95 deacons, and 208 teachers. During the year subsequent to the 6th of October, 1852, eighteen of the saints had been excommunicated. 139 of the Mormon priests and elders are on missionary expeditions in other parts and in foreign countries. The proportion of births to deaths in the year ending the 6th of October, 1853, is as 3½ to 1. Polygamy appears to work well.

THE Philadelphia Sun has a long and sensible article, condemning, in calm and manly language, the lawless conduct of the Erieans, and asserting the supremacy of law. It says:

"The truth is, the people of Erie are selfish to the last degree; so much so, that they have mistaken their true interests. They should encourage as many roads as possible to come to their city, no matter what guage is adopted by any company. These free avenues will make business; on the other hand, restrictions retard it. This is the experience of the world; and while we are quite willing to lend a helping hand to Erie, and would rejoice to see it flourishing and prosperous, we cannot countenance the restrictive policy, nor support the measures which have been adopted to enforce it."

MORTIMORE'S

Rheumatic Compound.

THIS truly celebrated remedial preparation, efficacious alike for each and every description of RHEUMATIC COMPLAINTS, is already too well known and esteemed throughout the United States, to require any lengthy notice of its paramount virtues. IT ERADICATES this heretofore incurable and distressing disease from the system, and STANDS UNRIVALLED IN THE PHARMACY OF MEDICINE.

We do not propose to make unqualified statements, or to force a nostrum before the public, but simply to request those most interested—THE SUFFERERS THEMSELVES—to procure from the Agent in their vicinity, a circular, and not only read the testimony of those who have experienced its invaluable curative powers, but also to write to, or call upon, the convalescents, so that the statements may emanate from the Fountain-Head—a course which will satisfy the most incredulous, and only by which the reputation of the REMEDY is certain of being sustained. Write also to the proprietors, who will accord every information, and furnish names of undoubted character from every section of the Union, numbering among them some of the most eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Editors, and prominent citizens, rendering the reliability and efficacy of the remedy beyond the reach of doubt or distrust.

Mortimore's Rheumatic Compound,

Is a Vegetable Extract, an Internal Remedy, prepared expressly for this One Disease; and this it will cure in every form, either Inflammatory (Acute) or Chronic, no matter how long standing.

Sold by H. FESS, Jr., S. JOHNSON, Jr., and LAKE & HOPKINS, Milwaukee.

THE ABOVE HAVE ALSO FOR SALE.

THE GREAT ALTERATIVE,

MORTIMORE'S

BITTER CORDIAL AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

THIS invaluable remedy—for every description of Nervous Affections, and for diseases of the Liver and Kidneys—has obtained a popularity, wherever introduced, unprecedented in the history of any other medical preparation ever brought before the public.

Many of our most eminent Physicians have thoroughly tested its merits, and now prescribe it as the most effective Alterative and Blood Purifier ever known.

Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Night Sweats, and Affections of the Lungs, will readily yield to the influence of this unrivalled remedy. Physical Derangements or Irregularities, especially with Females, producing Debility and Prostration of the system, may be at once obviated and removed by the use of the

which is a Vegetable Spirit, pleasant to take and perfectly safe to be used in any state of health, even by the most delicate female or child.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE PACIFIC.

Great Naval Battle—Turkish Fleet Destroyed—Advance in Breadstuffs.

NEW-YORK, Dec. 27.—The Steamer PACIFIC, from Liverpool, with 103 passengers arrived about 11 A. M. The ARABIA arrived out Sunday morning at 8 o'clock.

The news per Pacific is of thrilling interest. A great naval battle has been fought. The particulars are as follows: On the 30th November the entire Russian fleet from Sebastapool, under Admiral Mahenoff, 24 sail, appeared off the Turkish harbor of Sinople, where Admiral Ismer Bey lay with 14 Turkish sail. The battle commenced and the shore batteries being of no force the Russians forced the harbor.

The Turks fought like devils, and would not surrender. With a most desperate bravery they fought until one ship after another was blown up or burned. Thirteen perished and only one surrendered to tell the tale. Seven Turkish frigates, two corvettes, one steamer, and three transports, with several thousand men have totally perished, and Ismer Bey, the Turkish vice Admiral, taken prisoner. Each of the Turkish ships had besides the crew 800 troops on board on their way to Circassia; also a quantity of money to pay the fleet, all of which was lost.

The Turks sunk or burned several Russian ships—namely, three line of battle ships, three frigates and two steamers. The battle lasted only one hour. The rest of the Russian fleet was so shattered that it could hardly reach Sebastopool.

All Europe is in excitement at this desperate disaster to the brave Turks, and the opinion is that an European war cannot longer be avoided with honor.

Admiral Slade, the Englishman in command of the Turkish fleet, is giving parties in the Bosphorus. He returned to anchorage on the 26th, four days before the battle, saying he could not find the enemy, although merchantmen continued to report having seen numerous Russian ships of war prowling about. Some of the papers demand that he shall be put on trial for cowardice.

The Turks continued to gain advantage in Asia. On the line of the Danube there were no movements.

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 13.—Breadstuffs—Market is again very active with renewed demand for Holland and France, notwithstanding large arrivals reported on change of wind.

Flour was quoted at 1s6d advance, for choice qualities say 2s, and wheat 2d@3d advance since the sailing of the America. Brown, Shipley & Co. quote American white wheat at 10s@10s9d; red, 9s8d@10s9d ℔ 70 lbs.; Philadelphia, Baltimore and Ohio flour at 37s@37s6d; Canada, 36s@36s6d ℔ barrel. Several other firms agree in quoting Western Canal and Canada flour at 36s6d@37s; Philadelphia and Baltimore at 37s 6d@38s; Ohio at 37s6d@38s6d; Southern at 32s@33s6d.

Indian Corn steady and unchanged. Weather frosty.

Provisions—James McHenry quotes: Beef—arrivals of new have partially increased—sales of old at considerable decline. Pork, neglected. Stocks of old bacon clearing at irregular rates and downward tendency.

Lard, 1s lower. Tallow quiet.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—British funds consols closed for account at 94⅜@94⅝. Bank stock, 220@222. Exchequer bills, 6s@9s.

Trade dull in Paris.

Steamboat Explosion and Loss of Life.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 22.—A dreadful accident occurred here this morning, causing the loss of twelve lives.

The steamer Marlboro, while lying at her wharf at the Atlantic docks, burst her boiler this morning, instantly killing the captain, engineer, and ten deck hands.

Cheap Ocean Postage.

BOSTON, Dec. 23.—Elihu Burritt addressed a large and attentive audience in Faneuil Hall last evening, in favor of cheap ocean postage,—Mayor Seaver presided, and many of our influential citizens were present.

Death of an Editor.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 22.—Thomas H. Shreve, one of the Editors of The Louisville Journal, died to-day after a lingering illness.

THE RENOWNED REMEDY!!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT!

THIS extraordinary Unguent is composed of the most healing Balsams, and when used in accordance with the directions which accompany each pot, will insure cures when all other means fail. Cases of the most desperate Skin diseases readily yield to its efficacy. It is famous when used in cases of Gout, Rheumatism, Contracted or Stiff Joints. In Asthmas it will do wonders, if well rubbed into the Chest.

A MOST ASTOUNDING CURE OF SCROFULOUS ULCERS.—A Case Certified by the Mayor of Boston, England.

Copy of a Letter from J. Noble, Esq., Mayor of Boston, Lincolnshire.

To Professor HOLLOWAY—

Dear Sir: Mrs. Sarah Dixon of Liquorpond-street, Boston, has this day deposed before me that for a considerable period she was severely afflicted with Scrofulous Sores and Ulcers in her arms, feet, legs, and other parts of her body; and although the first of medical advice was obtained, at the cost of a large sum of money, she obtained no abatement of suffering, but gradually grew worse.

Being recommended by a friend to try your Ointment, she procured a small pot, and a box of the Pills, and before that was all used, symptoms of amendment appeared. By persevering with the medicines for a short time longer, according to the directions, and strictly adhering to your rules as to diet, &c., she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health.

I remain, dear sir, yours truly,

Dated August 12, 1853. (Signed) J. NOBLE.

AN EXTRAORDINARY AND RAPID CURE OF ERYSIPELAS IN THE LEG, AFTER MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Yeates, of the Postoffice, Aldwick Road, near Bognor, Sussex, dated Jan. 12, 1853.

To Professor HOLLOWAY—

Sir: I suffered for a considerable period from a severe attack of Erysipelas, which at length settled in my leg, and resisted all medical treatment. My sufferings were very great, and I quite despaired of any permanent amendment, when I was advised to have recourse to your Ointment and Pills. I did so without delay, and am happy to say the result was eminently successful, for they effected a radical cure of my leg, and restored me to the enjoyment of health. I shall ever speak with the utmost confidence of your medicines, and have recommended them to others in this neighborhood similarly afflicted, who derived equal benefit.

I am, Sir, your obliged and faithful servant,

(Signed) ELIZABETH YEATES.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—

Bad Legs
Bad Breasts
Borns
Bunions
Bite of Mosquitos and Sand Flies

HOLIDAY STOCK!

ENGLISH AND AMERICAN!

ARNOLD & WILSON,

175 East Water Street, - - - Milwaukee.

HAVE ARRANGED their ILLUSTRATED WORKS, and other appropriate GIFT BOOKS for the inspection of their friends and customers. Taking it for granted that purchases will not be made without examination, A. & W. deem any special comment unnecessary, and are content to await the decision of the customer on the comparative merits of the different articles offered for selection. As their aim has been to present a great variety, and few duplicates, an early application may be requisite to gratify a particular taste. They invite attention to the following:—

ITALY—Classical, Historical and Picturesque—illustrated in a series of views by the leading Landscape Painters of Great Britain, with descriptions and an essay by Camillo Mapei, D. D. Antique Morocco.

Parables of our Lord, with new and beautiful illustrations, by John Franklin.

Songs and Ballads of Shakspeare, illustrated by the London Etching Club.

Retzsch's Outlines to Shakspeare's Dramatic Works.

The Holy Gospel, with illustrations, engraved under the superintendence of Charles Heath. Antique Morocco.

Poetry of the Year—Passages from the Poets with 22 colored illustrations.

Liber Fluviorum, or the River Scenery of France, depicted in 61 Line Engravings from drawings by Turner, with descriptive Letter-Press by Leitch Ritchie.

The Salamandrine, by Charles Mackay, with illustrations drawn by Gilbert.

Pilgrimages to English Shrines, by Mrs. S. C. Hall—200 engravings.

Longfellow's Poems, with about 100 engravings, from designs by Birket, Foster, etc.

Scotland, illustrated in a series of 80 views by Scottish Artists, with descriptions and an essay by Prof. Wilson.

The Village Queen, by Thomas Miller, with water-colored drawings by Absolon, Weir, &c.

The Fine Arts, from the French of Guizot—illustrations by Schart.

Pictures from Sicily, by the author of Forty Days on the Desert.

Uncle Tom's Cabin—original designs by Billings.

Rambles and Recollections of an Indian Official—colored plates.

England's Worthies, a Gallery of Portraits, with illuminated engravings.

A Holiday Book for Christmas and New Year—profusely illustrated.

Portraits of Eminent Reformers, with an Essay, by Geo. Hume.

The Waverly Keepsake, with 70 engravings from scenes in Scott's Novels.

The Lady of the Lake—illustrated by Foster and Gilbert.

Weld's Sacred Quotations—illustrated edition.

The White Veil, a Bridal Gift, edited by Mrs. Hale.

The Bow in the Clouds—elegantly illustrated.

The Morning Call, a Table Book of Literature and Art, by Mrs. Ellis.

Illustrated Editions of Shakspeare, Milton, Chaucer, Young, Cowper, Thompson, Goldsmith, Pope, Byron, Burns, Rogers, Gray, Macauley, Watts, Goodrich, and other Poets.

Bibles and Prayer Books in Morocco, Carved Antique, and Velvet Bindings, with Clasps. Hymn Books in various bindings.

In addition to the above, A. & W. have a very large and choice assortment of JUVENILE BOOKS. Also, FANCY ARTICLES, including Medallions, Paper Weights, Port-Monnaies, Card Cases, Inkstands, Silver Taper Stands, Card Baskets, Boquet Holders, Baronial Seals, Reticules, Charms and other Bijouterie, etc., etc., all selected with an eye to the approaching Holidays. dec19dw1l ever come that way," said the elder, as he placed his wife, also profuse in her thanks, in the carriage, and prepared to seat himself by her side. "I trust," he continued, "that you will meet with a warm welcome."

"I do not know that," returned the farmer, in a marked tone. "Considering the cool reception I met with the last time I called, I hardly think of repeating the experiment."

"Called—the last time—when?" exclaimed the elder in astonishment. "I do not remember of ever seeing you before!"

"Do you not recollect a teamster's calling upon you, about three months ago, to obtain shelter from a thunder-storm?"

"Why, yes," slowly answered the elder. "I don't know, but I do."

"Well, I am the man," was the rejoinder; "and owing to your refusal to aid another in distress, I lost the sale of my grain, it being too damp to be ground in season; and when I did get it ground, there was no market for it. You will doubtless recollect I told you then, that I hoped you would never stand in need of assistance. It has proved otherwise, and this afternoon's experience will probably convince you that we must all, not only lean upon one another, but, aside from its being an absolute duty, the safest and best way to get through this world happily, is to do as you would be done by."—True Flag.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., Aug. 29, 1853.

W. W. BOOTH:

Dear Sir:—I feel myself to be under weighty obligations to you for the dozen bottles of your Superior Black Ink. Several bottles are being used in my school, with most gratifying satisfaction. We hear not that common complaint of "poor pens," which we so often hear where an inferior or ordinary article of ink is used. 'Tis not its jetty, black, and shining smooth surface, alone, that gives it a superiority over other articles of the same name, but the readiness with which it always flows from the pen, and the property which effectually prevents metallic pens from corroding, under all ordinary circumstances. I can most cheerfully recommend its introduction into our primary schools as being precisely adapted to the use of children.

Respectfully Yours, &c.,

NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS.

CITY TREASURER'S OFFICE,
Milwaukee, Nov. 26, 1853

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to all interested that the Tax Lists for the City of Milwaukee are now in my hands for the purpose of collecting the Taxes and Assessments levied and assessed in said city for the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-Three, (1853,) and that I will receive at my office all taxes and assessments contained in said lists until the thirty-first (31st) day of December next.

Notice is further hereby given, that all personal taxes contained in said lists will be received by me, at my office, for twenty (20) days succeeding the first publication of this notice—at the expiration of which said twenty (20) days, I shall proceed to enforce the collection of such personal taxes as remain unpaid, according to law.

Notice is further hereby given, that I shall, on Monday, the 9th day of January next, at 10 o'clock A. M., at my office, commence selling all lots, parts of lots, and tracts of lands contained in said tax lists for the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-Three, (1853,) upon which such taxes and assessments remain unpaid, or so much thereof as will pay and satisfy all taxes which may be assessed thereon, together with all costs and charges which shall accrue, according to law, by advertisement and sale, and shall continue said sale from day to day, (Sundays excepted,) until all lots, parts of lots and tracts of lands on which such taxes remain unpaid, shall have been sold.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

WELL, the BARNUM HUMBUG has been exhibited, and we are all satisfied with it, and we will have to be satisfied with whatever is presented before us; for what else is there in this cold, miserable world, but Humbugs? Lawyers are Humbugs, Doctors are Humbugs, Bankers are Humbugs, Merchants are Humbugs, Auctioneers would try to be Humbugs, and in fact every thing is a Humbug, with two exceptions, viz: Handsome Ladies and a group of small Children, are the only realities we have in this world. Now, I have no fault to find, nor do I care what any one says, for there is no friend so near and dear to you as yourself, and all you should wish of that friend is to do right. Now, I again call your attention to this STOCK OF DRY GOODS, amounting to about Ten Thousand Dollars, which I now offer to any one on 6, 12, or 18 months without any interest, at what they cost.—Real Estate security will be taken. To any one who wants to go into the Dry Goods Trade, here is an opportunity that seldom offers.
